

Lamb's Fold Women's Center

is a non-profit organization which takes in homeless women and children and brings them to self-sufficiency.

Since 1995, we have served over 3,000 women and children, providing:

- 242,485 meals and snacks;
- 63,423 shelter nights;
- 3,958 hours of counseling;
- 2,565 hours of in-house classes;
- 30,721 garments/diapers

The Lamb's Fold serves women and children of all faiths and backgrounds, offering love, encouragement, compassion and caring to those who need it most.

Residents attend classes to aid them in recovering from the cause of their homelessness, be it domestic violence, loss of employment, divorce, or lack of adequate education and job skills needed to provide for themselves.
